

David LeClair Award

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS – IMMEDIATE RESPONSE REQUESTED

The David LeClair award was established to recognize and encourage newer MAHU members who have shown strong leadership qualities and service to the health insurance industry and in various community activities. The award consists of a cash grant and a recognition plaque, and will be presented to an individual who has demonstrated dedication to the health care industry. The recipient will be a “newcomer” interested in furthering his/her career in the insurance industry. The award is presented at the MAHU Annual Meeting during the lunch program.

LeClair Award Winner Qualifications

Nominees must demonstrate the following:

- Be an active member of the Minnesota Association of Health Underwriters with a maximum of five years as a MAHU member;
- Demonstrate a high standard of personal and professional qualities in his/her daily activities;
- Actively participate in the community;
- Be active in MAHU by regularly attending meetings or other association activities and either giving dedicated service to the health insurance industry or currently pursuing an industry designation.
