

John J. Symanitz Award

The Symanitz award was established in 1989 for recognition and appreciation of John J. Symanitz. John was known for his outstanding leadership and dedication to the health industry, support of community activities and lifetime of quality professional sales. The recipients of the award demonstrate these same qualities in their personal and professional endeavors. The award is selected by a nominating committee made up of members of MAHU and presented at the MAHU Annual Meeting during the lunch program.
